Eligibility criteria:

- Residency: Hackney resident
- Or those who have been educated in Hackney
- Or have been a Stoke Newington School & Sixth Form school leaver.
- Business Administrators play a key role in all organisations, whether large or small, public, private or third sector. They have skills that can be used in many different roles. As a business administration apprentice, you will be involved in:
 - Providing professional, productive and responsive administrative support to faculties within the School
 - Ensuring all work is carried out correctly and efficiently to a high standard
 - Undertaking additional or other duties as may be appropriate to achieve the objectives of the post and as directed and deemed appropriate by the Line Manager.
 - Working effectively with others by creating and maintaining good communications
 - Acting as Fire Marshall and First Aiders

You will spend at least 12 months in a supporting role within the Stoke Newington Secondary School. You will work with staff from across the organisation; and you could work with Hackney's residents and external organisations.

The main tasks and duties will depend on the service and the role.

Your apprenticeship will include a formal training programme leading to a business administration NVQ qualification Level 2/3. You will also receive regular on-the-job training from your manager and colleagues to help you develop in the role.

You will spend at least one day per week working towards your qualification or taking part in training and development activities. It is important that you work hard on the formal training as well as the on-the-job aspects. Your manager and colleagues will support you.

When you have completed your apprenticeship, you should have the following knowledge, skills and behaviours:

Knowledge - You will have a good understanding of:

- Stoke Newington Secondary School, its values, priorities, and the services it provides.
- The School's diverse range of customers; and the barriers and challenges facing some of our residents.
- How your own work contributes to organisational success and the School's wider goals.
- The relevant processes and can make suggestions for improvements.
- The relevant policies and legislation, and know how they apply.

Skills and experience - You'll have:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills; confident in writing emails, contributing in meetings and briefing senior officers.
- Strong problem solving and decision making skills.
- Effective time management skills – you'll be able to work independently and prioritise your work;
- Technical skills (as relevant to the role)
- Expertise in our IT systems and databases (as relevant to the role).
- Practical experience of working with 'stakeholders' (these are other people or organisations with an interest in the project or work).

Behaviours - You'll have:

- A 'professional' attitude (know how to behave appropriately in a work environment).
- Respect for the varied experiences of other, and work well as part of a team.
- Respect for the privacy of our service users; and know how to keep information confidential and safe.
- Political awareness – you'll understand organisational culture and the wider political context.
- Flexibility – you'll adapt well to changing priorities and demands.
- Ambition; you'll take responsibility for your own learning and development, and career advancement.

The purpose of the Job Description and Person Specification is to provide information about the role and the skills a successful candidate must have.
